

Dear Parents / Guardians,

Gifted Education –Mathematics Olympiad training course II

Mathematics is essential in the school curriculum of Hong Kong as it is a powerful means of communication, a tool for studying other disciplines, an intellectual endeavour and a mode of thinking. It is also a discipline, through which students can develop their ability to appreciate the beauty of nature, think logically and make sound judgments. To develop students' potential and help them develop necessary skills for lifelong learning, a Mathematics Olympiad training course will be provided for students with outstanding performance in Mathematics. Please encourage your son / daughter to join the training course. The details are as follows:
